Answers

Let us explore some representative questions that reflect the style and difficulty level you can expect. Study these carefully and think about why each correct answer is right.

Sample Question 1: Policy Types

Question: Which type of life insurance policy provides coverage for a specified period and typically does not accumulate cash value?

- A. Whole life insurance
- B. Universal life insurance
- C. Term life insurance
- D. Variable life insurance

Answer: C. Term life insurance

Explanation: Term life insurance provides pure death protection for a set term, such as 10, 20, or 30 years. It does not build cash value, making it the most affordable option for temporary needs. Whole life, universal life, and variable life all have cash value components.

Sample Question 2: Policy Provisions

Question: Under the grace period provision, how many days does a policyholder typically have to pay an overdue premium before the policy lapses?

- A. 10 days
- B. 15 days
- C. 30 days
- D. 60 days

Answer: C. 30 days (or 31 days in some policies)

Explanation: Most life insurance policies provide a 30- or 31-day grace period. If the premium is not paid within this time, the policy may lapse. Texas law requires insurers to provide at least a 30-day grace period.

Sample Question 3: Texas State Law

Question: In Texas, an agent must deliver a policy to the policyholder within how many days after it is issued?

- A. 10 days
- B. 20 days
- C. 30 days
- D. 60 days

Answer: B. 20 days

Explanation: Under Texas law, an agent must deliver the policy to the policyholder within 20 days of issuance. Failure to do so may result in regulatory penalties. This requirement ensures consumers receive their policy documents promptly.

Sample Question 4: Underwriting

Question: When an applicant is rated as substandard, which of the following is most likely true?

- A. The applicant will pay lower premiums than standard
- B. The applicant has a higher-than-average risk of death
- C. The applicant is automatically declined coverage
- D. The policy death benefit is reduced immediately

Answer: B. The applicant has a higher-than-average risk of death

Explanation: A substandard rating means the applicant poses a greater risk due to health conditions, hazardous occupations, or other factors. The insurer will charge higher premiums or add exclusions to offset that risk.

Sample Question 5: Ethical Practices

Question: An agent learns that a competitor has made false statements about the agent's products. What is the best course of action?

- A. Make false statements about the competitor in response
- B. Report the competitor to the Texas Department of Insurance
- C. Ignore the situation entirely
- D. Confront the competitor directly

Answer: B. Report the competitor to the Texas Department of Insurance

Explanation: The ethical and legal response is to report misconduct to the TDI. Retaliating with false statements violates state law and could jeopardize your own license. The TDI investigates complaints and enforces fair practices.

Life insurance has its own vocabulary. Terms like incontestability, nonforfeiture, grace period, and free look are used repeatedly. Flashcards help you memorize definitions quickly, freeing mental energy for more complex application questions.

Common Mistakes to Avoid on Exam Day

Even well-prepared candidates make avoidable errors. Being aware of these pitfalls will help you stay focused and accurate.

Rushing Through Questions

It is easy to panic and speed through the exam, especially if you feel pressed for time. However, reading each question carefully is essential. Many questions contain subtle qualifiers like "all of the following except" or "most likely." Rushing increases the chance of misreading and selecting the wrong answer.

Changing Answers Unnecessarily

Your first instinct is often correct, especially if you have studied thoroughly. Unless you find clear evidence that your initial choice is wrong, avoid the temptation to second-guess yourself. Frequent answer changes can lower your score.

Ignoring the Clock

While you should not rush, you also should not spend too much time on any single question. If you are stuck, mark the question and move on. You can return to it later if time permits. Leaving several questions unanswered at the end is worse than guessing on a few.

Neglecting the State-Specific Section

Many test-takers focus heavily on general insurance knowledge and underestimate Texas-specific content. Because you must pass both sections independently, neglecting state law can cause you to fail even if you aced the general portion. Ensure your study plan gives equal weight to Texas regulations.
